

List of Mediators and Arbitrators

Often, members of the association ask if KICA knows any local mediators and arbitrators for ongoing issues they may have with other members that are not within the scope of the association's services. The association is happy to provide the following list of local mediators and arbitrators certified by our State Supreme Court and also those used locally for the state's District Court. If you have an issue, you may want to seek remedy through use of a mediator. For a complete list of all state mediators and arbitrators, please contact the State Supreme Court and the state's district court.

This list was updated in July 2001.
